

What Can I do with FAB pro?

- Just think outside the box for one minute. There are so many uses for this product please allow me to list just a few.
- Create an online Presents for you and or your business in No time at all with FAB. Just think, you could make a 100 blogs about your industry and start posting information about your company being the best in that industry.
- You could even make a template with a link or story about your company providing quality service to be used in every post. So when people Google your company name they only see lots of current articles about your services from your FAB postings
- Ever Google yourself or company and find search results you would like to get rid of? Just think, now you can make a template with your name or company name and have it post on unlimited blogs DROWNING OUT any other old search results!
- What About POLITICS, can I make a 1000 political blogs all created and managed by FAB with stories about my Candidate creating a “BUZZ” across multimedia platforms? HECK YES, it is very simple but powerful!
- With FAB it seems like I can create a “BUZZ” about Anything I want, is this true? Oh Yes the sky is the limit, you can make pages of search results on any topic, not just place top 10!
